

Penny Jayne Black

AWARD-WINNING AMERICANA/ROOTS
SINGER-SONGWRITER

SPOTIFY | APPLE MUSIC | YOUTUBE | INSTAGRAM | TIKTOK | FACEBOOK

pennyjayneblack.com | pjbmanagement@hotmail.co.uk

BIO

- Charting Artist - 'Music Row Country Breakout Charts' U.S.A
- Nashville distributed Artist
- UK Award Winner
- LATEST RELEASE - "Fire in My Belly" is currently charting in the European Hotdisc Top 20 marking another exciting milestone in Penny's international music journey.

Penny Jayne Black is an award-winning UK Americana and Roots singer-songwriter, celebrated for her soulful vocals, heartfelt songwriting, and authentic storytelling. Her career achievements include winning UK Country Radio Awards for both Song of the Year and UK Female Country Singer of the Year, establishing her as one of the UK's standout voices in contemporary Americana and country music.

Her Nashville-distributed singles, "Steel Horse" and "Gone," both charted on the U.S. Music Row Country Breakout Charts, further expanding her international recognition. Penny has showcased at Nashville's prestigious Country Radio Seminar (CRS) and gained additional exposure as a featured Artist on Bob Harris's 'Under The Apple Tree' sessions.

More recently, her Single releases "Black Coffee" and "What You Do to Me" both reached No. 2 in the UK iTunes Blues Chart, showcasing a vibrant blend of Americana roots and contemporary influences that continue to captivate audiences on both sides of the Atlantic.

pennyjayneblack.com

pjbmanagement@hotmail.co.uk

- "A track that burns with determination, radiating momentum with a driving, roots-rich arrangement." -- Fatea Magazine
- "A Sensational Talent." – Ronnie Johnson, Former Guitarist & Musical Director for Van Morrison
- "Excellent, hardcore." – Pablo Ettinger, Co-Founder of Caffe Nero
- "Penny could be in with a shout." – Stuart Cameron, UpCountry Magazine / BBC Radio Contributor
- "A Stunning Singer-Songwriter and Great Performer." – Andy Cotton, TAO Productions

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

CHARTS

- #2 UK iTunes Blues Chart
  What You Do to Me
- #2 UK iTunes Blues Chart
  Black Coffee
- Music Row Country Breakout Chart U.S.A
  Steel Horse
- Music Row Country Breakout Chart U.S.A
  Gone

AWARDS

- UK Country Radio Award – Song of the Year
- UK Country Radio Award – UK Female Country Singer of the Year
- GSMC Music Award – Best Album
- GSMC Music Award – Best Female Solo Artist

INDUSTRY

- Country Radio Seminar (CRS) Showcase Artist Nashville
- Featured Artist Bob Harris's - 'Under The Apple Tree' Sessions
- Music featured in Caffè Nero stores throughout the UK 2026, 2025
- Performance at BCMA Awards (UK)

pennyjayneblack.com | pjbmanagement@hotmail.co.uk

SINGLE RELEASES

"Fire in My Belly"

Inspired by Elvis's cheeky charisma, 'Fire in My Belly' captures passion, attraction & undeniable chemistry. Blending Country, Blues and Americana, it delivers a soulful, attitude-filled sound brought to life through a cinematic Western-inspired video.

"What You Do To Me"

Blending Penny's Americana roots with warm Mediterranean rhythms, Latin influences and contemporary Country-Pop energy, this vibrant celebration of attraction and connection showcases her soulful vocals and evolving sound.

"Black Coffee"

Penny's soulful interpretation of "Black Coffee" introduced her to a wider audience, reaching No. 2 on the UK iTunes Blues Chart. The release also received nationwide exposure through Caffè Nero stores across the UK, demonstrating her versatility as a vocalist and her ability to connect with listeners across multiple genres.

"Summertime"

Summertime marked the beginning of a new creative chapter for Penny Jayne Black. Set against a nostalgic Americana backdrop, the song tells a moving story of young love, heartbreak and hope. Rich in imagery and emotional depth, it reflects Penny's gift for storytelling and her ability to transform personal experiences into universally relatable songs.

MUSICAL STYLE

Penny Jayne Black creates music rooted in Americana and country-roots traditions, blending soulful vocals with authentic storytelling and memorable melodies. Her music embraces influences from America, Country Soul, Blues, Jazz and contemporary acoustic styles, creating a distinctive sound that is both timeless and emotionally engaging.

pennyjayneblack.com | pjbmanagement@hotmail.co.uk